SANTA FE STUDENT STATE-WIDE WINNER IN LIONS INTERNATIONAL PEACE POSTER

CONTEST

Santa Fe, NM

Hannah Sachs, daughter of Heidi and Justin Sachs, has won First Place in the Capital City Lions Club International Peace Poster Contest. Hannah is a Grade Seven student at Santa Fe School For the Arts & Sciences. Not only has she won in Santa Fe for the second year, she has gone on to become the winner for the State of New Mexico, also for the second year in a row. Miss Sachs' poster was among more than 375,000 entries submitted worldwide in the 21st annual Lions International Peace Poster Contest. Lions Clubs International sponsors the contest to emphasize the importance of world peace to young people. Placing 2nd in the annual contest, was Brenna O'Brien, daughter Petra and Tony O'Brien. Third place winner was Kamon Tari, daughter of Kathy and Mika Tari. All are students at Santa Fe School for the Arts and Sciences, Principal is Ms Rayna Dineen.
